Service Club Celebrates Its Tenth Anniversary

A most enjoyable afternoon was spent by the North Saanich Service Club and its many friends at the celebration of its tenth birthday on Monday afternoon at the grounds of Alex. McDonald, M.L.A.

The crowd started to drift in shortly after 1 o'clock and sports and bathing with occasional hot dogs or ice cream filled the afternoon. At tea time the president, J. C. Anderson, called on Capt. Wilson to give a short resume of the early days of the club, which he did, recalling many amusing items out of the past. The president then called on Mr. McDonald to say a few words, at the same time thanking him for the use of his grounds for the picnic. Finally H. Despard Twigg of Victoria and a former member who was guest on this occasion was asked to say a few words, which he did to the enjoyment of all.

Games of chance were dotted about lest any of the guests should be suddenly overtaken with a desire to lose a corner and tea was served for all comers.

In the evening many novelty races were run off and the day finally wound up with a camp fire at about 10 o'clock with everyone tired after an enjoyable afternoon and evening.

CATHEDRAL IS VISITED BY MANY

The annual picnic of St. Andrew's Sunday School was held on Monday of this week and took the form of a pilgrimage to the diocesan cathedral. The majority of the cars transporting the scholars left Sidney at 2 o'clock and arrived at the cathedral at 3 o'clock where they were met by the assistant dean, the Rev. E. O. Robotham and Deaconess Margaret Robinson. The party then divided into two sections, the deaconesses explaining points of interest to the younger children while the rector of Sidney explained the outstanding features and appointments of the beautiful building to the older scholars, teachers and parents. Particular interest was evinced by the "Robin Pillar," the Westminster Corner, and the exquisitely stained modern glass. The older party was taken up into the bell tower where the art of "change ringing" was explained by the venerable cathedral organist, A. C. Melhuish. The verger demonstrated the pulling of bells by actually ringing up the bell named "Paul of London." The party then descended the stairway to the actual bell chamber where the names and characteristics of the bells was explained and where "Paul of London" was seen in his "rung-up" position. Upon descending to the nave of the cathedral the groups rejoined each other at St. Christopher's College where they were received by the principal, Miss M. Carlisle, and tea was served on the lawn. During tea the bells of the cathedral were chimed for the party and after a treasure hunt in the college grounds the scholars returned to the cathedral for a short children's service conducted by the Rev. E. O. Robotham. During the service Dean Quinlan addressed the children and welcomed them to the cathedral. One of the Schenck school presented a cheque for the purchase of some article required by the Children's Corner. After the service the Dean shook hands with all the children and adults, and after a short stop at Terry's for ice cream the party returned to Sidney.

The thanks of the teachers and scholars to all who assisted in transportation, gifts of food and ice cream are gratefully extended.

Funds Raised To Shingle Church Roof

By Review Representative
GALIANO, Aug. 26.—A dance held in the Galiano Hall on Friday last with the object of raising funds to shingle the Galiano Church was organized by Mrs. Cyril Morgan. A large crowd attended, among them visitors from the summer resorts, Arbutus Point and the Farmhouse Inn, also Gossip Island and Mayne Island. G. W. Georgeson acted as master of ceremonies. A delightful supper was served, Mrs. Morgan being assisted by Mrs. V. Zala, with the arrangements.

VERY NOVEL COMPETITION SATURDAY

The first event in the history of the Ardmore Golf Club which has been thrown open to the general public will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2:45 in the nature of a competition between archery champions of Victoria and local golf champions.

The competition will take place on the golf course with targets placed in the holes for the archers while the golfers will play in the usual manner, the best score winning the match.

The Victoria Archery Club champions are Miss Betty Shad and H. F. Shad and keen competition will no doubt result when they meet Miss Diana Fraser and W. T. Sisson, the champion golfers.

A very cordial invitation is extended to the general public to be present on this occasion and enjoy the afternoon's play, and anyone who has no means of transportation is asked to "phone Sidney 29-R and this will be arranged.

Besides the main event of the day there will be a number of other competitions such as putting, line driving, etc., in which all may take part.

Tea will also be served after 4 o'clock at a very nominal charge. Coming Events column holds particulars re prices.

SAANICH FAIR PRIZE LISTS ARE ISSUED

Entries are now coming in for the Saanich Fair and indications point to a good entry list. Several special awards are to be made by Victoria flour mills for bread baking in the dairy produce and household arts section as well as the ordinary baking, etc., classes.

Special attention is drawn to the Blue Ribbon Tea biscuit competition, which is again included as in former years with the three awards amounting to $6.00.

An award by the B.C. Electric Railway Co. will be made to the exhibitor obtaining most points in these classes. Several classes of interest to boys and girls 16 years of age and under are included in most of the sections, and as there is no entry fee for these all boys and girls are invited to become exhibitors. A new class for young exhibitors this year, collection of vegetables, this year, consist of four kinds.

The committee under the convener of H. C. Oldfield has revised the cattle section and it is expected that there will be a great opportunity to see in competition some of the finest cattle on the Peninsula.

One of the sections in the Saanich Exhibition which has in recent years created much interest is the egg section. This branch has been the subject of a special report by Wm. Hagger, Dominion egg inspector, for the past three years.

The ever popular Highland dancing and piping events will again be one of the main features of the outdoor attractions.

Send for your prize list and entry form to the secretary, Saanich, or drop in at the Review office.

Guide Captain Is Honored

The 14th I.O.D.E. Girl Guide Company honored its former captain, Miss Zoe Bruce, on Wednesday last at a handkerchief shower. Miss Bruce has had to resign her position as captain owing to the fact that she is leaving shortly to go in training at the Vancouver General Hospital.

The shower took the form of a delightful beach party and corn feed.

HEAR YE! HEAR YE!

A land reader on Saturna Island writes us as follows:

"Ye Editor, 'Sidney, B.C.'"

"Sir:—We read in your valuable paper that—

"Salt Spring has 100 miles of coast line;

"Pender Island is one of the prettiest of the Gulf Islands;

"Galiano is one of the most popular for summer camps; etc."

"Well, we will lend you our slogan—

"Saturna, the hunter's and fisherman's paradise!"

Saturna Island is truly worth visiting. There are a number of fine beaches, picturesque bays, fine open spaces and hills that add to the picture. Above all the residents are, as is the case with all the islands in the gulf, a happy, healthy, friendly lot who will welcome you when you pay their island a visit.

The board of directors has appointed Wednesday, August 26th, as the opening day of the Rest Haven Hospital annual campaign for funds. Members of the staff will visit places of business and homes of residents in the Saanich Peninsula and Gulf Island in the interests of the campaign. A number of the nurses have volunteered to give their hours off duty to the work of soliciting subscriptions. The sympathetic and liberal response on the part of its many friends in past years has contributed greatly to the successful maintenance of Rest Haven. To these friends the board desires to express grateful appreciation.

Reliable statistics of recent publication reveal the following interesting facts:

There are now in various countries of the world 131 hospitals, dispensaries and treatment rooms. During the past five years members of 2,709 welfare societies established by the organization, administered 4,541,563 treatments to the needy sick and distributed 5,753,734 articles of clothing—sufficient to completely outfit 1,150,746 men, women and children.

In South Africa, visited our leper station at Malamulo. He said: "Gentlemen, I hope that you will increase this colony until you can take care of 500 patients." He is using his influence to provide the necessary tract of land. In responding to our thanks for his visit he said: "My friends, you need not thank me, the pleasure is all mine."

From Mexico, Dr. G. Reynold writes: "We draw patients from a radius of 200 miles. There is scarcely a day that we can attend all who come to us. Our work has been made doubly hard by a lack of adequate equipment. We are desperately in need of a new hospital building. We have ten nurses crowded in a small four-roomed house. In addition to giving all the anesthetics, Mrs. Reynolds is conducting a nurses' training school in which ten students are taking the course, one of which has been given special training in laboratory and X-ray work."

In reporting the war work of the hospital at Dessaye, Ethiopia, Rev. James Rohrbach, a minister of the Presbyterian Church, who was visiting the institution at the time of the bombing, writes: "All of the worst cases were sent to the hospital, where the whole staff worked tirelessly without food or nourishment until well into the night. All the operations were major; amputations, repairing any and all parts of the body, etc. Cases which would be serious at any other time because there was no first aid, simply because there was nothing else to do; and only operations absolutely necessary were performed that day. Even so they operated until there wasn't a clean instrument, dressing, or bandage to be found in the hospital. If the hospital was jammed before, it was choked after the bombing. Their operating room and clinic were littered with debris, blood, bandages, swabs, instruments, and parts of the human anatomy. The mess was indescribable. Rubber gloves were few and most of the days Dr. Studin operated with hands dipped in iodine. Everything was makeshift because a hospital many times that capacity couldn't have handled the patients that flooded in. When I left a month and a half later there were still a number of bombing patients in the hospital."

"The good will wrought by years of courageous, loving treatment of the sick cannot be estimated. As I moved around among the people of the community I found it on every hand."

It was at this time that one of the nurses, after helping patients to safety, received a compound fracture of bones of the leg while leaping into a bomb-proof trench. The Empress and her daughter called to offer their sympathy. The nurse merely expressed regret that she had to leave her work in the hospital. On hearing this the Empress's eyes filled with tears and she said, "You have done this for us." Dr. and Mrs. Studin with two nurses carried on their work of attending to the sick and wounded, Mrs. Studin after attending with her husband, carrying on with him under fire, was killed during the fighting at Addis Ababa after the flight of the Royal family.

Capacity Crowd At Pender Island Fair

By Review Representative

PENDER ISLAND, Aug. 26.—Perfect weather and a big crowd in holiday mood contributed largely to the success of the fifth annual Pender Island Agricultural and Industrial Show on Wednesday last, which was opened at 1:30 p.m. by Alex. McDonald, M.L.A., in an appropriate address in Hope Bay Hall. The "City People" arrived moon moon with a capacity load and many parties.

Lunch was served by the Women's Institute in their tea-room nearby, and here teas and light lunches were to be obtained throughout the afternoon. An ice cream and "hot dog" stand, "Aunt Sally," and canteen shops comprised the outdoor attractions and were well patronized by the younger generation.

The numerous exhibits were generally of very commendable quality, with many exceptional specimens in the various classes. Some classes, too, showed on unusually large number of entries, making competition keen. Fruit, flowers, vegetables, and cookery were the main classes, the latter being very favorably commented on by judges and patrons alike. The new addition to the hall provided to be an asset in providing additional floor space for exhibits. The hall was cleared after 5 p.m. and a capacity crowd enjoyed dancing to the strains of the local orchestra. Supper was served at midnight, and everyone turned reluctantly homeward about 3 a.m.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Editor assumes no responsibility for the views expressed by correspondents. All letters must be signed by the writer for publication. Writers are requested to be brief and to the point. Kindly write or type on one side of your paper only.

RE MR. CONNELL

Sir: Now that the first shock of the Rev. Mr. Connell's bombshell has spent itself it is possible to consider the event a little more calmly and to express one's ideas without heat or resentment. However right or wrong Mr. Connell's conclusions after the convention may have been does not enter here, but there certainly was another constitutional course open to him and I am of the opinion that Mr. Connell owed it to the party to take that course, and if then unable to reach a satisfactory agreement he would then have been justified in turning to the public. However, he chose the latter course first. This does not fit in with his self-proclaimed policy of "first things first." It is not my intention to go into detail on the points on which he takes his stand, for the pros and cons of these points are daily being placed before the reading and listening public. Much is made of Loyalty in his statement, but no mention has been made of loyalty to the poor and self-sacrificing members in the rank and file, or those other thousands who had been inspired to hope for better things and better conditions in our province by the work of the C.C.F. That work is still being carried on although Mr. Connell's action has, perhaps, made it more difficult than it has previously been, and I do think that Mr. Connell should have been the very last person to add to the troubles of the organization that he has so ably represented up to this time. The men that he now calls pro-communists, left-wingers, and so on, are the same people that they were when he accepted his nomination as a C.C.F. candidate, they had the same views then as they hold now, and the public knew it, and has not been deceived by them. It has always been understood that the C.C.F. aimed to establish Socialism, and the most radical among us are fully aware of the fact that a Socialist order cannot be made overnight. A Socialist Government can be elected in one day and from that day it will be the first duty of that government to alleviate the rotten conditions we are at present existing under and to eliminate the injustices that exist under Capitalism.

OVER 20 YEARS AGO from the Diary of BERYL WEATHERELL

MAY 9, 1915—

We hear there has been a riot in Victoria over the sinking of the "Lusitania" with 1,400 souls on board. The rioters did about $25,000 worth of damage before the police had things under control.

MAY 29, 1915—

The Ganges Chapter, I.O.D.E., had its first "Saturday Stall" under the trees near the wharf during boat-time today. Those in charge of the stall were Mrs. Frank Scott, Mrs. and Miss Clarke, Miss Mary Walter and Miss A. Wilkes, who did a brisk trade selling flowers, cakes, sweets and other goods. Even a pair of rabbits were sold. The stall made $18.35 for the Red Cross fund.

JANUARY, 1904—

The Victoria Creamery, near Royal Oak, was burnt down about a week ago. Until they can rebuild they will send their cream to our Salt Spring Creamery, which is just about ready to open. We shall have to run it night and day to do their work as well as our own, as they are making butter from 800 cows.

JANUARY, 1904—

The mail steamer "Troquois" has passed into new hands, Mr. T. W. Patterson having sold her to Messrs. Sears and Munro for $20,000.

JANUARY, 1904—

Two accidents that might have been most serious occurred within a day or two of each other rather more than a month ago. Mr. Frank Crofton got caught in the belting of a chair cutter and was drawn onto the eels before the engine could be stopped, and Mr. J. Royal fell under the levels of his team and had his jaw broken in three places. Both are now convalescent.
